

Your Name: _____ Author's
Name: _____

Directions: In your group, take turns reading each person's poem.
Write down one glow (something the writer did well) and one grow
(something you feel the writer could improve on) in each category:

Category	Glow	Grow
Giving details about their life: Did the writer include details about their home, family, and hobbies?
Descriptive and figurative language: Did the writer use similes, metaphors and personification to make their writing more interesting? Did they use good adjectives to describe things or did they say "good," "bad," "big"?
Imagery: Did the writer paint a clear picture in your mind?
Great vocabulary: Did the writer include strong word choices? Were there places where the vocabulary seemed weak, inappropriate, immature, or unadventurous?

Your Name: _____ Author's
Name: _____

Directions: In your group, take turns reading each person's poem.
Write down one glow (something the writer did well) and one grow
(something you feel the writer could improve on) in each category:

Category	Glow	Grow
Giving details about their life: Did the writer include details about their home, family, and hobbies?
Descriptive and figurative language: Did the writer use similes, metaphors and personification to make their writing more interesting? Did they use good adjectives to describe things or did they say "good," "bad," "big"?
Imagery: Did the writer paint a clear picture in your mind?
Great vocabulary: Did the writer include strong word choices? Were there places where the vocabulary seemed weak, inappropriate, immature, or unadventurous?		